Bidayaat is proud to announce that it has been recognised by the Ministry of Social Affairs as a partner in the newly launched Training Plan for nurseries. For you this is an opportunity to reflect on the work in your setting and consider your training agenda. We understand that each of you will have very different needs and we look forward to working with you to enact your training program and motivate your staff through enjoyable, powerful, hands on professional learning.